Department Chair Search

The Illinois Institute of Technology (IIT) is seeking a distinguished scholar for Department Chair of the Civil Architectural and Environmental Engineering (CAEE) Department (www.caee.iit.edu).

IIT is a private research university in the heart of Chicago. The Armour College of Engineering at IIT under the leadership of a new president, provost, and dean, has embarked on an ambitious and exciting agenda to build upon Armour's accomplishments and reputation by growing the research portfolio, continuing excellence in undergraduate and graduate education, increasing campus diversity, expanding facilities, and undertaking major capital improvements across the campus. IIT's recently developed strategic plan places engineering excellence among its highest priorities. The CAEE Department is an important component of this vision, and plays a leading role in the interdisciplinary themes identified in the strategic plan.

The CAEE Department offers bachelor and master degrees in civil, architectural and environmental engineering, and doctoral degrees in civil and environmental engineering. It has 12 tenured/tenure-track faculty members, 232 undergraduate students, and 240 graduate students. The department received over $950,000 in research awards in the most recent fiscal year.

Candidates for the position are expected to merit appointment as full professor and have a record of distinguished research and educational achievements. The position of department chair offers highly competitive compensation and benefits.

For full consideration, applicants should submit a letter of interest outlining their qualifications and vision for the position, curriculum vitae, and the names and contact information of at least three references. Application materials should be submitted electronically to caee_search@iit.edu. Review of applications will begin on April 19, 2010 and will continue until the position is filled.

Direct questions and enquiries to the Search Committee Chair, Dr. Ali Cinar, Vice Provost for Research at 312-567-3637 or cinar@iit.edu
